Transforming Systems, Elevating Leadership, Creating Change

Leonora (Light) Walker is a nationally and internationally recognized leader in justice restoration, policy transformation, and leadership development. With nearly a decade of experience, she has worked with organizations, agencies, and communities to reimagine systems and create healing-centered pathways for empowerment. As the Founder of FREED Texas, she has built peer-led, trauma-informed initiatives that uplift dignity, agency, and transformation. Bridging lived experience with policy innovation, she drives community-led solutions and holistic healing for those impacted by systemic barriers.
